

IN THE GARDEN

I come to the garden alone,
When the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear falling on my ear,
The Son of God discloses.

*And he walks with me and he talks with me,
And he tells me I am his own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known.*

He speaks, and the sound of his voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing,
And the melody that he gave to me,
Within my heart is ringing.

I'd stay in the garden with him
Tho' the night around me be falling,
But he bids me go; through the voice of woe,
His voice to me is calling.

IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL

In all that befalls me in life day to day
I know that the Christ's in control.
In peace or in strife, he has taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul."

*It is well with my soul;
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

Though trials may press me and storms may assail,
In all things the Christ I'll extol.
His spirit within me shall ever prevail,
So it's well, it is well with my soul.

My life has been changed by his glorious deed,
For now I am free, I am whole.
His wonderful grace has been given to me;
Praise the Lord! For he lives in my soul.
